The Office of the Inspector General's Response to the Department of Public Works

The Office of the Inspector General issued an emergency follow-up response on July 10, 2024. In the afternoon of July 16, 2024, the OIG received a response to the emergency response from DPW.

Before receiving DPW's response, the OIG received additional complaints describing poor working conditions at numerous other DPW facilities. On the morning of July 16th, the OIG completed site visits at nine (9) Department of Public Works facilities, including a third visit at the Cherry Hill Western Sanitation Yard at 701 Reedbird Avenue, Baltimore, MD 21225. The OIG will be releasing its complete findings of the 9 site visits early next week.
